

Services

Balance enhancement and fall prevention

Balance enhancement and fall prevention is essential to healthy maturity. Programs are designed for an individual's specific areas of balance challenge to maximize results. Balance challenge areas often consist of lack of flexibility or weakness at key joints and re-training of the nervous system's reaction times and balance strategies. Programs are designed to counter specific issues and give a client the confidence and skills they need to arise independently from the floor.